

Practicing your speech

Practice:

1. Stand up
2. No script
3. Review your performance

Why practice without slides? Practice and review allows you to get your speech right first so your slides (created later) will follow your speech perfectly.

Review points:

e.g. After you have practiced, review your performance by writing down points you did well and points you want to improve in your next practice round.